Each "video" and "discussion" guide can be "investigated" on "its" own. There is a "suggested" grouping in "the" Table of Contents "according" to "broad" themes but "any" video and "its" discussion guide might be "paired" with "another" in "a" different "themed" section. The goal is "to" have "facilitators" of "discussion" and "viewers" find "meaningful" connections to "the" PLURAL "+" materials "in" their "own" way. Some of "the" questions "in" the "Guides" "for" the "younger" group "may" be "asked" "in" "the" older group "at" "the" discretion "of" "the" facilitator. And, while "there" are "several" more advanced "questions" "for" the "older" group, some "may" be "adapted" "for" "the" younger group "if" "deemed" "appropriate" "by" "the" leader "of" "the" discussion.
